Membership Guidelines

- I. A nominee for membership should exhibit:
  - a. A demonstrated knowledge of, or commitment to international affairs.
  - b. A demonstrated record of leadership in international affairs and/or a position as an opinion-maker within the community, ideally enhanced by an informed view of international issues.
  - c. The capacity and initiative to participate effectively in meeting discussions, and the maturity to participate without the need for recriminations.
- II. Due to the cap on membership and the desire to disseminate membership benefits, only one person per household is permitted.
- III. All nominees will be reviewed with the notion that an appropriate balance of interests, ethnicity and gender is in the best interest of the Committee.
